

Your Opportunity to Buy Writing Paper

Pound papers are always the more economical in buying stationery—and because we give you sixteen ounces of writing paper—about 90 sheets—in each pound, ours is the more economical to buy.

Lord Baltimore Writing Paper

Is a grade for which you may ordinarily pay as much as 35c. but is a paper we specially feature at 25c per pound. Deep point ply envelopes to match, 50 in a carton, cost you 25c.

An Exceptional Value

During this month we are making a special feature of this stationery, offering one pound of the paper and fifty of the envelopes, a combination for which we ordinarily ask 50c.

The Two—Special for 39c.

Don't wait until you need writing paper—buy it while you can get it at this price.

A Blithesome Profession.

From a paper read in San Francisco: "The true funeral director is serious, but not gloomy; dignified, but not morose; gentle, but not fawning; self-possessed, but not self-conscious; quietly masterful, but not bossy; alert, but not fussy; watchful, but not nervous; a kindly, unassuming master of ceremonies."—Boston Herald.

AVOID SPRING COLDS

Sudden changes, high winds, shifting seasons cause colds and grippe, and these spring colds are annoying and dangerous, and are likely to turn into a chronic summer cough. In such cases take a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, a pleasant Laxative Tar Syrup. It soothes the cough, checks the cold and helps break up an attack of grippe. Its already prepared, no mixing or fussing. Just ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Tested and tried for over 40 years.—Adv d-w

GOT EVEN WITH IRVIN COBB

Irvin He Had Made Fun of More Than Turned the Tables on Popular Lecturer.

Irvin S. Cobb is a practical joker.

Last winter when in California delivering his lecture upon the war, it pleased Cobb to practice a bit upon his friend, Charles E. Van Loan, author of "Buck Parvin and the Movies." Cobb had asked Van Loan to introduce him to his Los Angeles audience and Van Loan had refused, being a reasonably modest man with a poor stage presence and a bad speaking voice. On the night of the lecture Cobb walked out upon the stage alone, spied Van Loan in a box and proceeded to flay him alive in an introductory speech.

At the end of his lecture it was Cobb's custom to answer questions, but when he thought the people had had enough for their money he would place his hand on his forehead, which would be the signal for his manager, in the rear of the house, to ask him the "planted" question: "Are you going back?" This was the cue for a neat retort from the lecturer, followed by a story apropos of the question, and on the laughter and applause thus obtained Cobb would make a graceful exit. After the Los Angeles lecture, Cobb filled an appointment in a near city and Van Loan, still smarting from his public humiliation at Cobb's hands, went along for company. The manager could not be present, and in the emergency Cobb planted the closing question with Van Loan, rehearsing him several times.

"When I put my hand up, so, you ask me 'Are you going back?' Just that way, remember, because the wording of the question is important—'Are you going back?' And speak up loud." The lecture was a great success, and at its close the questions came thick and fast. Finally there was a lull and Cobb put his hand to his forehead and waited to make his snappy retort, but this was what came floating up from the back of the house: "Where do you go from here?"

HAD EVERYTHING IN ORDER

Conscious of Approaching Death Man Selected His Pallbearers and Officiating Clergyman.

"Good sermons" for his funeral at $2.50 a sermon were ordered by William H. S. Moyer, who died here on January 21, and whose will was filed for probate the other day, a Reading (Pa.) correspondent of the New York Herald writes. All the provisions in the will were carried out to the letter.

Mr. Moyer left a large estate and he made eleven small bequests to churches, colleges, orphanages and cemetery companies. He named the kind of coffin he wanted and the text of his funeral sermon. The hymns were specified. One was "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

Two clergymen were named. In case one became ill or refused to preach the sermon for $2.50 a substitute was provided.

Mr. Moyer named his pallbearers and the undertaker and directed that his body should be kept for six days, to make sure that he was dead, before burial.
